Show choices for Branson 2010

Dolly Parton's Dixie Stampede Christmas Show - The spirit of Christmas comes alive at the Dixie Stampede Christmas show. The fun begins as Elves from the North and South Poles compete in several different contests. A live nativity scene tells The Christmas Story. All the while the beautiful decorations and Christmas music fill the background. The traditional Dixie tradition is still alive and well with live horses, camels, and ostriches and the meal is as great as ever. There's even a special pre-show performance that will whet your appetite for the fun (and food!) to come. And as if the show weren't enough, guests also partake in a hearty four-course meal fit for even the hungriest cowboy or cowgirl.

Yakov Smirnoff Show - Yakov has received the title "Comedian of the Year" two times, and you will never realize how proud you are of your country until you see Yakov perform. The famous, hilarious Russian comedian will share his experiences and philosophies while making you laugh till your sides hurt. Let Yakov tell you what it's like to come to this country and learn our customs the hard way in a humorous and comedic delivery. Words cannot describe the talent and charisma of this unique performer; it's something you absolutely have to experience for yourself. Come see why Yakov has been selling out shows for years.

SIX - Don't miss out on the chance to experience a cappella performance at its finest with SIX, a high-energy featuring SIX talented brothers who use their own vocal talents to perform favorite songs from all genres. There are no traditional instruments in this show - instead, the SIX provide their own instrumentation through the use of their remarkable vocal abilities as they share music as diverse as Motown and the Beach Boys. Barry, Kevin, Lynn, Jak, Owen, and Curtis have been stunning audiences with their remarkable talents, and continue to provide that entertainment to the stages of Branson, Missouri!

Branson Belle Dinner Cruise - Featuring a three-course meal, variety show, and opportunity to sightsee along Table Rock Lake, the Showboat Branson Belle offers an encompassing time of entertainment while visiting Branson, MO. You'll cruise Table Rock by authentic paddlewheel boat for a nostalgic time that will harken back to the popular entertainment boats that once frequented the Mississippi River. You'll begin your Branson Belle experience with an energetic emcee as he shares interesting facts and stories about the performances you'll see throughout the night, and even the Branson Belle itself, as you begin to enjoy your meal. After dining, you'll have the chance to explore the Branson Belle itself and take in the sights of Table Rock Lake from the outer decks for approximately thirty minutes. Then, it will be back inside to enjoy a fast-paced time of entertainment featuring music, dancing and comedy.

Miracle of Christmas - The Miracle of Christmas brings the story of Christmas to life for you on the beautiful 300-foot-long stage at the Sight and Sound Theatre through an interactive experience filled with sensory immersion. The smells of Christmas will fill the air as you interact with a living nativity featuring actors in period costume and live animals. The theater is brilliantly decked out in holiday attire with lights, greenery, and a thirty foot tall Christmas tree. You will watch the story of Jesus the Messiah taking human form unfold on the stage.

Andy Williams Christmas Show - The Andy Williams Christmas Show is a hallmark of the Branson holiday season. The stage at the Moon River Theater is transformed into a winter wonderland, and Williams and his cast of singers and dancers performs many holiday classics accompanied by a live band. Williams is also joined by the talented Warnocks family and the Adagio dancers, Pasha and Aliona.

Baldknobbers Jamboree Show - The Baldknobbers began the Branson tradition of entertainment back in 1959, becoming the first production in the area, and has set the standard for all that Branson has become through its variety of comedy, music and all-out family fun! Along the Baldknobbers experience you'll find a blend of both classic and contemporary country music, a touch of gospel, and interludes of comedy for a show that perfectly represents the Ozarks, and is sure to entertain its many visitors!

Brule: The American Indian Rock Opera - Your family will have a memorable evening of entertainment with powerful music and exciting dance moves when you catch Brule and the American Indian Rock Opera perform on your next trip to Branson. This show is sure to offer a powerful performance with a full theatrical production and a team of talented dancers performing with him. Brule's long list of hits includes 'All My Relations,' 'Spirit Horses,' 'And Justice For All,' 'Peace Is All Around Me,' 'Buffalo Moon,' 'Celebration of the Heart,' 'Stomp Dance,' 'The Chosen One,' and so many more. The American Indian Rock Opera has been acclaimed by many as the most dynamic group of American Indian dancers on stage today.

Neal McCoy - Set to bring his chart-topping brand of pop country to Branson, Missouri throughout the year! Neal is based in Texas, but regularly makes the rounds throughout the US and the international music scene. To date, Neal has released 11 albums, with 25 singles hitting the charts in the past 20 years. Neal McCoy's show is filled with action, fun and family entertainment. You'll hear some of his top songs, tapping your toe and singing along with hits like 'You Gotta Love That,' 'For A Change,' 'Wink,' 'No Doubt About It,' 'They're Playing Our Song' and many others. During his illustrious career, Neal has garnered numerous accolades and awards, including a gold album, three platinum albums and an Entertainer of the Year Award.

Oak Ridge Boys - Exuding an authentic representation of the energetic country sounds of the Ozarks, the Oak Ridge Boys provide a truly entertaining show that will truly compliment your visit to Branson. Whether through pop sensations such as "Elvira" or area favorites like "Ozark Mountain Jubilee," the Oak Ridge Boys present a fun time for the entire family! Let all of the authentic Oak Ridge Boys from the late '70s (Duane Allen, Joe Bonsall, William Lee Golden and Richard Sterban) provide your family with a night of charismatic stage presence and amazing vocal ability.

Righteous Brothers - Bill Medley is coming to the Starlite Theatre in Branson, Missouri so you can relive the musical sensation of Bill Medley and the late Bobby Hatfield all over again. They performed some of the best pop music classics of the 60's and 70's. Bill Medley was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and a Grammy Award Winner for all of his musical accomplishments. The Righteous Brothers duo is famous for all time favorites like "Unchained Melody", which is the most often played song in American radio history. Other classic hits include "You've Lost That Loving Feeling," "Just Once In My Life," and "You're My Soul and Inspiration." He entertains the audience with music from different genres and variety with his own very talented band.
